

Discussant

Jeanette Makings, Head of Financial Education Services, Close Brothers Asset Management

Jeanette joined Close Brothers in 2000 after 16 years working in professional services with Arthur Andersen and Ernst & Young. She now heads up their Financial Education division, working with some of the UK's best known employers such as PwC, Jaguar Land Rover, Total Oil and Nestlé to deliver financial wellness programmes for their employees.

Jeanette is passionate about creating financial education programmes that inspire employees to make a difference to their future; ensuring financial wellness is adopted within an organisation as part of a holistic wellness strategy to help improve employee engagement, retention and productivity.