Putting Leadership and Collaboration into Practice in a Changing Voluntary Sector: Guest Speaker

Thursday 22 March 2018

Pauline Broomhead CBE

CEO of the Foundation for Social Improvement (FSI)

Pauline is founding CEO of the Foundation for Social Improvement (FSI); a charity which supports small, local charities and community groups to help them secure a sustainable future by providing the best learning opportunities.

Her career has seen her work on campaigns with many high-profile charities in the UK and internationally. Drawing from this experience, she leads FSI to carry out research into issues affecting the small charity sector, and delivers training, development and consultancy services. In its 10 years, the FSI has helped thousands of small charities improve their operations, ensuring best practice in governance and maximising fundraising opportunities in order to deliver and diversify the services offered to their communities.
