

We are delighted you are joining us for the CVSL conference on 22 March 2018. Full joining instructions will be sent to you shortly before the event. In the meantime, please select your preference for the afternoon workshop.

Places on the workshops are limited so please choose by clicking the button and registering through Eventbrite for your preferred session.

Workshop 1: Doing Leadership Development Online: the what, the why and the how?

Facilitator: Dr James Rees

In this session you will be invited by our panel of speakers to think about what you, the broader sector, and our diverse audiences need from online learning resources. It begins with three 3 minute 'provocations' from guest speakers who have been asked to reflect on:

1. Emma Snow: what do charities and social enterprises need?
2. Pauline Broomhead: why do diverse charities need leadership development?
3. Owain Smolovic-Jones: how do we improve leadership development online?

Book Workshop 1

Workshop 2: Leadership for diverse societies: challenges and Opportunities in Businesses and Public Institutions

Facilitator: Dr Fidele Mutwarasibo

Presentations

1. Leadership in migrant and minority community organisations - Don Flynn, Former Director of the Migrant Rights Network
2. Representation and leadership in Milton Keynes' Voluntary Sector Organisations - Claire Walker, CEO of Community Action MK

3. Collaborative engagements with voluntary sector organisations in Milton Keynes - Kevin Bowsher - Director & Inclusion Manager at Network Rail

Followed by discussions surrounding the challenges facing voluntary sector organisations in Milton Keynes and how the sector can harness collaborative engagement with businesses and public institutions.

Book Workshop 2

Workshop 3: Collaborative Leadership in Theory and Practice

Facilitator: Professor Siv Vangen

In this session, Siv Vangen and Carol Jacklin-Jarvis will provide a short presentation and facilitate a discussion on the role of leadership in generating collaborative advantage in different contexts and situations. You will be invited to reflect on the paradoxical nature of collaboration, share your experiences on the kind of leadership challenges that arise and how to overcome these in practice.

Book Workshop 3

If your first choice of workshop becomes filled, register on your second choice and email OU-Events@open.ac.uk to advise us of your first choice and we will add you to a waiting list.

Don't miss out on the latest research information and events

From May 2018 the new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) will mean that we cannot contact you with news of our fantastic research and events unless you email us now to confirm that you would like to continue to receive our mailings and invitations to events.

Email Now to Subscribe

Best wishes,

Janet Barker External Engagement Manager

✉ janet.barker@open.ac.uk ☎ +44 (0)1908 659262

The Open University (OU) Business School's External Engagement Office works with the OU's Development Office to keep in touch with alumni, partners and supporters.

Our privacy policy sets out how the OU obtains, manages, uses and protects your data and relates specifically to information held by both Offices.

The Open University is incorporated by Royal Charter (RC 000391), an exempt charity in England & Wales and a charity registered in Scotland (SC 038302). The Open University is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority in relation to its secondary activity of credit broking.

The Open University Business School

Walton Hall, Milton Keynes, MK7 6AA, UK

01908 274066

business-school.open.ac.uk

You have received this email because you have expressed interest in the Centre for Voluntary Sector Leadership.

Unsubscribe