Leading, engaging and building relationships
with multicultural teams

Michael Faust for Open University Business School

- What actions and strategies will enable you to thrive in an international setting?
- What does it take to lead international teams and how can you develop the leadership approach and exceptional cultural awareness to succeed?
- What are the typical derailers and how can you avoid them?

Delegation. I delegate until I feel nauseous about it — and then I delegate some more.

Observe. Listen. Speak. In that order

Replace 'but' with '&'

Chameleon.

Is it a team?

How you disagree.

Trust the cliché. Find the individual

Cultural intelligence.

I am different. Not they are different.

Define team culture and ways to do things.

Over communicate: Reach & frequency.

Over communicate: Fixed & variable.

Communicate: Quality not quantity

High standards.

Sleeves up. Sleeves down.

Add value.

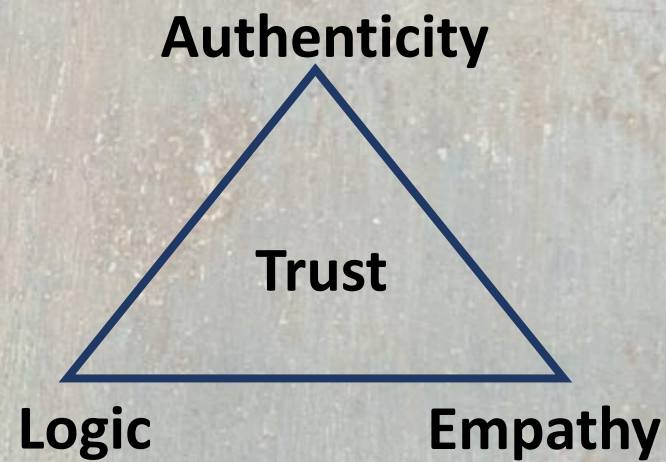

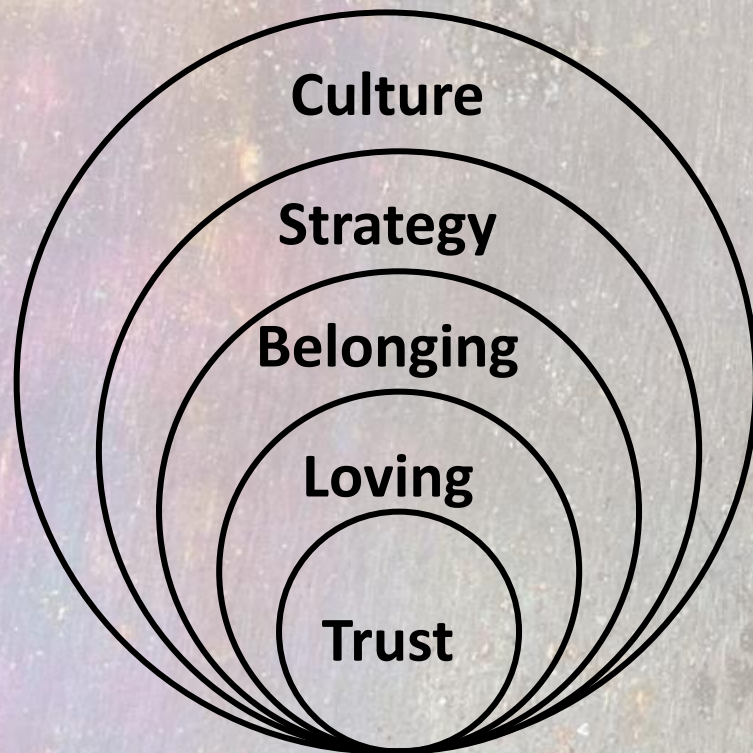

Drive it hard.

Social > business.

Influence beyond formal authority.
