

The Open University Business School

Alumni Council Member

Gerard McGurk

Consular Regional Director Southern Europe,
Foreign and Commonwealth Office

Area of Expertise: Business strategy and leadership

Qualification: MBA

Gerard is the Deputy-Chair of the OUBS Alumni Council. He works at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office as Consular Regional Director for Southern Europe, delivering consular services and real-time crisis preparedness and responses throughout Southern Europe. He previously led the Middle East, North Africa and South Asia consular region until July 2016. Now based in Madrid, Gerard leads consular operations in 37 diplomatic posts located in seventeen countries from Portugal to Turkey. He holds extensive experience in international multilateral negotiations within the UN Security Council, inter-governmental relations and political-military knowledge. He is an internal Foreign Office and Civil Service Coach (accredited by Ashridge Business School) with broad experience in cross-cultural coaching for improvement.

