

The Open University Business School

Alumni Council Member

Gillian Hannon

Senior Licensing Manager, ARM

Area of Expertise: Licensing IP, Engineering

Qualification: MBA (MBA Student of the Year 2017)

Gillian is currently a Senior Licensing Manager for a world-leading semi-conductor company, her role focusses on the negotiation of complex licensing deals in emerging markets. After an early career in private practice in Scotland focussing on European and US anti-trust law, Gillian transferred her skills to the pharmaceutical industry where she worked in clinical procurement for over 10 years for a leading global drug companies and most recently a medical device company. She intends to employ her varied public and private sector background to engage with the OU's global community and become a brand ambassador.