

The Open University Business School

Alumni Council Chair

Martin Wardhaugh

Group Chief Executive,
Arran Isle Limited

Area of expertise: Business strategy and Leadership

Qualification: MBA

Martin is Group Chief Executive of Arran Isle Limited, a £250m turnover, international building products group, headquartered in the UK. Arran Isle employs 1,000 employees, has significant operations in North America (14 locations), 10 business units in Europe, and sourcing, manufacturing and sales operations in China. Following a number of years in Finance, Martin has spent more than 20 years in general management positions, developing strategic plans and converting them into action. He has experience in commercial enterprise leadership and change management across a range of sectors, countries and organisation sizes.