

10

* Pregnancies which end before 24 weeks

BEST PRACTICE PRINCIPLES

FOR EARLY PREGNANCY ENDINGS* SUPPORT AT WORK

Greater awareness via information dissemination and training

Personalised support because a one-size-fits-all approach for such experiences is inappropriate

Acknowledgement of human, legal, and economic imperatives around early pregnancy endings and implications for productivity and performance

Policies and procedures which explicitly address disclosure and confidentiality to protect employee privacy

Implementing and monitoring evidence - based policies and/or guidance and procedures

Holistic support for employees' physical, emotional, and mental health and well-being, based on listening to individuals' needs

Consistent, equitable, and fair treatment across all types of early pregnancy endings

Inclusive support for all types of early pregnancy endings, and all those affected by them

Avoiding stigmatising language and instead being led by employees' preferences for terms to describe early pregnancy endings

Formal training for line managers and HR professionals

Read our research report at:
UNDERSTANDING THE EXPERIENCE OF EARLY PREGNANCY ENDINGS AS A WORKPLACE ISSUE (open.ac.uk)

<https://shorturl.at/zodk7>

